

President urges Federal Ombudsman to use IT for speedy justice

OUR STAFF REPORTER
ISLAMABAD

President Dr Arif Alvi has urged the Federal Ombudsman to make good use of information technology to expedite the mechanism of providing speedy justice to the masses.

Talking to Wafaqi Mohtasib, Syed Tahir Shahbaz, who called on him here at Aiwan-i-Sadr on Monday, President said that it is the constitutional obligation of the state to provide expeditious and inexpensive justice to its people and the Government is taking all possible measures in this regard.

President Alvi underscored the need for use of latest information technology tools in service delivery by the institution. He especially emphasized the need for broadcasting regular programs on PTV for a country-wide dissemination of information.

Syed Tahir Shahbaz informed the President that Wafaqi Mohtasib is introducing a special APP to help facilitate the petitioners for speedy justice.

Meanwhile, Federal Tax Ombudsman, Mush-taq Ahmad Sukhera also called on President Dr Arif Alvi today and presented the annual report 2018 to him.

Talking on this occasion, the President said that Federal Tax Ombudsman has an important role towards the resolution of complaints of aggrieved against the decisions of tax collecting apparatus.