Federal Ombudsman presents 2018 report to Sanjrani

Our correspondent

ISLAMABAD: Chairman Senate Muhammad Sadiq Sanjrani on Tuesday said that socio-economic development of any society or nation highly depended on the provision of speedy justice, which was further helpful in social integration and national cohesion.

He noted that the common man wanted solution to his problems and it was the responsibility of the state institutions to take concrete steps for providing solution of the problems being faced by masses. He said this during a meeting with Syed Tahir Shahbaz, the Federal Ombudsman, who called on him here and presented the annual report for 2018 to him.

Chairman Senate lauded the role of the Federal Ombudsman and appreciated the measures taken for provision of speedy justice to the society. He observed that taking advantage of the modern technology would further help in providing solution to the problems of common man.
