

DAWN

DAWN ISLAMABAD, FRIDAY AUGUST 7, 2020

Ombudsman to listen to expats complaints

ISLAMABAD: Federal Ombudsman Syed Tahir Shahbaz has appointed Dr Inamul Haq Javed as the grievance commissioner for overseas Pakistanis to address their complaints.

A statement said: "The department was already active in the Ombudsman Secretariat, which has taken numerous steps for the welfare of more than 8.5 million overseas Pakistanis. With the efforts of this institution, one window facilitation desks have been established at eight international airports for overseas Pakistanis, where representatives of 12 relevant departments remain present round the clock."

Pakistani envoys have also been asked to hear public complaints in embassies. — Staff Reporter

INTERNATIONAL
THE NEWS

Friday

August 7, 2020

Adviser appointed to address grievances of expats

Our correspondent

Islamabad

Federal Ombudsman Syed Tahir Shahbaz has appointed Dr. Inamul Haq Javed, Adviser as Grievance Commissioner for Overseas Pakistanis to resolve issues and complaints of overseas Pakistanis.

This department was already active in the Ombudsman Secretariat, which had taken numerous steps for the welfare of more than 8.5 million Overseas Pakistanis.

With the efforts of this institution, one window facilitation desks had been established at 8 international airports for Overseas Pakistanis where representatives of 12 relevant departments remained present round the clock.

The Pakistani Envoys have also been asked to hear public complaints one day in the Embassy.

Recently, Pakistan Origin Cardholders have been facilitated to open their bank accounts, purchase of property and getting other facilities from the departments being Pakistani.

The Financial Daily

Simultaneously Published from Karachi and Lahore

International

TOP NEWS

EARLY WICKETS KEEP PAKISTAN ON TOP AFTER SCORING 326 RUNS FIRST

Opposition to vote
for treasury's bills:
Sheikh Rashid

See Page 8

Inside Pages:

- #2: Only govt can reopen schools: Saeed Ghani
- #3: UHS plans COVID-19 vaccine trial in 2 weeks
- #4: Passage of two FATF-related bills
- #5: Dollar gains as appetite for risk subsides

FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 2020

Zil Hajj 16

Vol#14 Issue#4

Pages 8

Rs 20

KARACHI EDITION

Dr. Inamul Haq Javed made Adviser to the FO

ISLAMABAD: The Federal Ombudsman Syed Tahir Shahbaz has appointed Dr. Inamul Haq Javed, Adviser as Grievance Commissioner for Overseas Pakistanis to resolve issues/complaints of Overseas Pakistanis, says a Press release.

This department was already active in the Ombudsman Secretariat, which had taken numerous steps for the welfare of more than 8.5 million Overseas Pakistanis. With the efforts of this institution, one window facilitations desks had been established at 08 international airports for Overseas Pakistanis where representatives of 12 relevant departments remained present round the clock.

The Pakistani Envoys have also been asked to hear public complaints one day in the Embassy. Recently, Pakistan Origin Card holders have been facilitated to open their bank accounts, purchase of property and getting other facilities from the departments being Pakistani.